

GREENHEAD

— the arkansas duck hunting magazine —

A MUST-READ FOR WING SHOOTERS!

Entertaining and informative stories illustrated by colorful photography from the Arkansas duck woods make Greenhead a magazine duck hunters won't want to put down.

Our current lineup of features:

- Who kills the most mallards? We'll finally put the debate to rest. A detailed state-by-state analysis to see who's downing the most and where hunters have the best chance for success.
- Want to know how to predict where the ducks will be? Take a look at the weather patterns that spur ducks to move and the science behind tracking them.
- It's Northeast Arkansas' answer to Stuttgart's Wings Over the Prairie Festival. The Northeast Arkansas Duck Classic is the premier duck hunters event in that other part of the state where wing shooting is so good.
- The latest and greatest hunting gear and gadgets.
- Another Q & A with noteworthy Arkansas executives on their passion for the sport.
- Fathers & Sons: Through compelling personal tales we tell the story of how paternal influence turns traditions into legacies.
- The impact flooding – and droughts – have had and will have on waterfowl hunting in Arkansas.
- The latest tips and strategies for successful hunting and dog training.

...and so much more!
